"CIO survey is one of the most reliable surveys of CIO sentiment"

CIO Magazine, UK

The largest study of IT leadership in the world

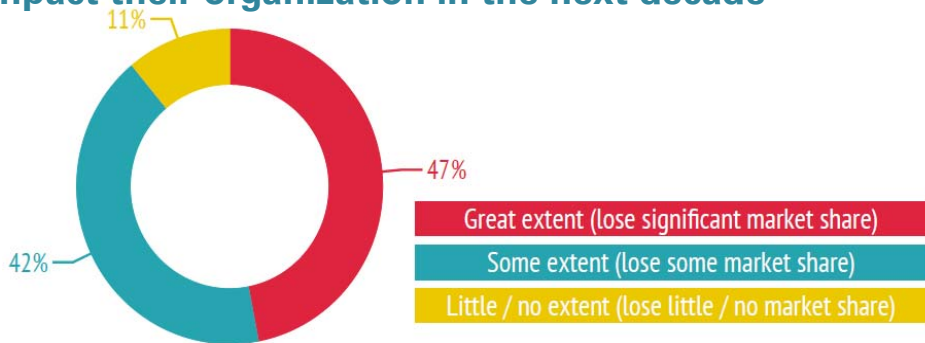

- Among the worldwide most renowned reports in the field
- Almost 4,000 IT leaders (CIOs, technology leaders, digital executives, CEOs and MDs) from a huge variety of backgrounds and from more than 50 countries
- Assessing 60 'over $1bn IT budget' organizations together with lots of "less than one million" ones: the participants' aggregated budget accounts for over $200bn, similar to Czech republic, Portugal or Ireland's GDP

Two-thirds of CIOs see digital as genuinely disruptive

Nine in ten CIOs believe digital disruption will impact their organization in the next decade

Majority of companies will experience disruption within two years

CIO EXECUTIVE MEETING

Projects success is not guaranteed

Success rating for the projects completed in the last two years

The percentage of successful CIO's initiatives is slightly decreasing

ERP and CRM are often large and complex with many different stakeholders, so it is not a surprise that their success rates are among the lowest ones

Big Data implementation is the only project type which received an higher rating vs 2014, but it is still a challenge

-6%
CIOs who think they are very well positioned to deal with attacks (vs 2014)

25%
Reported cyber-attacks last year

Almost two-thirds of CIOs believe their board fully recognizes the business risks posed by cyber-attack

Four in ten CIOs worry that 'great' damage would be inflicted and profit would be noticeably affected

While CIOs are concerned about security threats from 'open' technologies, 64% of them do not feel that this materially inhibits their ability to innovate

CIO concerns: Technology skills shortage

Does a skills shortage prevent your organization from keeping up with the pace of change?

Which skills are most required? (2015 vs 2014)

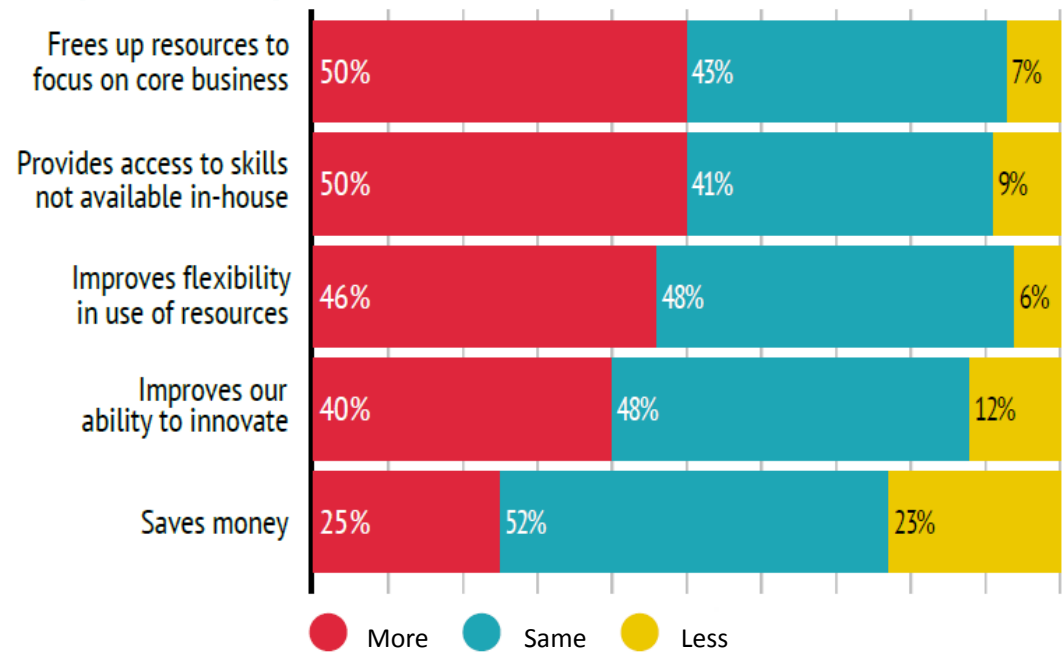

CIO EXECUTIVE MEETING

CIO concerns: Reasons for outsourcing are changing

How do you expect your spend on outsourcing to change the next 12 months?

There is no instruction book on how to deliver a successful digital strategy. However, a number of factors seems to unite those organizations that are really successful:

- 1 An impassioned and committed CEO, who is the ultimate owner of the digital strategy
- 2 An innovative business model and flexible culture, which puts innovation front and center and pushes IT to collaborate more closely with other functions (especially marketing)
- 3 A clear and comprehensive digital strategy, not only focused on customer facing channels:
 - It must define an operating model for the future with a technology stack to enable it
 - It should includes an upgrade and the integration of legacy systems with the new digital world
 - Business Process Management (BPM) tools and collaboration systems can play a strategic role in integrating the two 'worlds' and accelerate the transformation of organizations towards new operating models with efficient and effective digital processes
